

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK
By Lee Pape

Last nite after supper ma sed to pop, Wilfrum, I dont know how it is, but I was down town shopping today and I figure I awt to have 12 dollars left and I only have 10, I dont know how it is.

You were properly robbed, and if you were it aross you rite, nobody ever gets robbed except by their own carelessness, thats wat Irs always maintained, sed pop.

Wats a consolation, sed ma. I had a tawk on that very subject coming up in the trolley tonite with Lewis, sed pop, we were squeezed in pretty tite and Lewis made a remark to the effect that it would be a good place for pick pockets and I told him that if it wasent for peeples own carelessness the robbers would all starve. I told him I never lost anything for the simple reason that im a little carefull, and I told him any man that gets things stolen from him any how himself to blame, and by the time I finished talking Lewis agreed with me, too.

O yours one of the 7 wonders of the world, if not the 8th, sed ma, and pop sed, Not at all, I dont claim to be a wonder, Im merely a carefull man.

Wich be kepp on talking about it and the doorbell rang and I ran down to answer it and it was Mr. Lewis, saying, Wares your father, I want to see him, how how how. And he went up in the setting room, saying, Hello Potts, how how how, bears your watch.

And he took a gold watch and chain out of his pocket, saying, Wats you looking so surprised about, well Ill be harned, you never even mislead it yet how how how.

Wats it all about, wats the joke? sed pop. And he felt in his pocket wate his watch awt to be, saying, Wat the loose, and Mr. Lewis sed, How how how this is one on you all rite, after your cute little speech in the trolley car on the subject of pick pockets I just calmly snatched your watch and chain and you stood for it like a new born babe how how how.

Hee hee hee, look who's carefull, hee hee, sed ma. And me and ma and Mr. Lewis kepp on laffing as if we thawt it was funny as anything and pop kepp on not laffing as if he thawt it wasent.

Proving everybody is intitled to their own opinion.

She could eat anything—
without indigestion or sleeplessness

FOR a long time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank.

She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward.

Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. It is rich in the appetite-stimulating vitamin, so that appetite is always kept normal and you are protected from indigestion.

Add 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your daily diet. You will find that your whole digestive system is greatly benefited. Place a standing order with your grocer. He will deliver it regularly.
